3183. SHRI AMAR SINGH:
SHRI ABU ASIM AZMI:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to weed out unsuitable officers and also to reduce the age limit for those entering Government service to 25 from the current 30 years;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) by when it is likely to be implemented?

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRI SURESH PACHOURI): (a) to (c) Surinder Nath Committee on the System of Performance Appraisal, Promotion, Empanelment and Placement for the All India Services and other Groups 'A' Services has recommended that an effective system of screening officers should be put in place so that in-service officers who lack demonstrated competence, or who are unqualified, or of doubtful morale of financial integrity or who are in unacceptably poor health can be screened out. Officers screened out should be informed of the fact and advised that they may, if they wish, avail of a voluntary separation package. As regards reduction in age limit for entering into Government service, the Alagh Committee has recommended maximum entry age to Civil Services at 26 for general candidates while Hota Committee has recommended its reduction to 24 years with existing relaxation for the OBCs and SC/ST candidates. The Government is examining these recommendations. No decision has sofar been taken.

Administrative Reform Commission

3184. SHRI R.K. ANAND:
SHRI HARISH RAWAT:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Government are set to constitute an Administrative Reforms Commission (ARC) with the mandate to review the functioning of civil services in the country;

(b) if so, how it would be different from Surinder Committee, B.N. Yagandhar Panel and Hota Committee; and

(c) when was Hota Committee report submitted and what were its recommendations and whether its recommendations were implemented in toto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRI SURESH PACHOURI): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. Government has decided to set up an Administrative Reforms Commission (ARC) to prepare a detailed blueprint for revamping the public administration system. Surinder Nath Committee went into the system of Performance Appraisal, Promotion, Empanelment and Placement for the All India Services and other Group 'A' Services. Yugandhar Committee was set up to review 'In-service training of IAS officers' and the Hota Committee was set up to examine the Civil Services Reforms covering the All India Services and the Organized Group 'A' Central Services.
